1. The first part of the lesson is a warm-up activity where students discuss their own experiences with the topic.

2. The second part is a reading passage about the importance of language in education.

3. The third part is a writing exercise where students are asked to write a short paragraph about the role of language in their own lives.

4. The fourth part is a group activity where students work together to create a story using the words from the reading passage.

5. The fifth part is a reflection activity where students think about what they have learned and how they can apply it to their own lives.
